

Office Equipment Guide

Standard package: laptop, charger and mouse. Development staff may request one external monitor. All equipment carries an asset number and must be confirmed when received.

Repair and Return

Submit an IT service ticket before repair. Do not open the device or reinstall the operating system when data loss or a security incident is suspected. Return all assets on the final working day.